

Kim Lackner

Kim came to Arizona from Texas in 1964. She graduated from Pima High School and then studied at Eastern Arizona College. After college, Kim married and moved to a ranching community in the Southwestern part of Graham County where she and her husband, Don, still reside.

Kim began her Administrative Law Enforcement career as a Graham County Dispatcher in 2000. In 2006, she began working for the Safford Police Department as an Administrative Assistant. During this time, she received her certification in crime prevention from the International Society of Crime Prevention Practitioners. In 2015, Kim took on the role of Administrative Supervisor, and has since been promoted to the position of Executive Secretary to the Chief of Police.

Along with her duties which include assisting the Chief of Police, supervision of the Records Section and Property and Evidence, and is the Department's primary grant writer and manager. Her work has resulted in doubling the amount of grant money previously received. These grant funds not only benefit the Safford Police Department but the entire Law Enforcement community in Graham County.
