SPECIAL EVENTS

Veteran's Day Activities: The inaugural Safford Field of Honor took place last month on the Safford City Hall Lawn. Many flocked to the lawn to see the wonderful display of 250 American flags posted from November 9 through 16 honoring our Veterans. Family and friends purchased the flags through the Safford Lion's Club to be flown in honor of their loved ones. The inaugural Veteran's Day Parade, also put on by the Safford Lion's Club, took place on November 11, which led up to the annual Veteran's Day Ceremony on the 11th hour of the 11th day at the Graham County Courthouse steps put on by the American Legion Post 32. While the flags may now be gone until next year, let's all remember to thank our Veteran's all year through.

Merry Main Street: The weather was threatening leading up to the evening events at Merry Main Street, however the show went on! Families bundled up and gathered around the locally famous tree lighting ceremony, and afterwards partook in activities all up and down Main Street, including the annual treasure hunt throughout downtown businesses, and a visit with Santa!
